

Erika Vada

Erika Vada is an economist, certified public accountant and tax consultant. Her audit qualifications cover the areas of budget, IFRS, issuers, financial institutions and investment companies. She first started her professional career at Taurus Company as an economist, then continued as a senior employee of the APEH. She held the positions of team leader, head of department and managing director at the Ministry of Finance, the Compensation Office and ÁPV Rt. She is the majority owner and managing director of PRIM-AUDIT Kft. During her career, she holds elected positions in the supervisory boards of several large companies - Kisalföld Volán Rt., Volánbusz Rt., Bábolna Rt.). Since 2015, she has been a member of the National Board of the Hungarian Chamber of Auditors. she has published several publications on taxation and accounting. She speaks English.

competences:

- insurance and financial markets
- business strategy and business model
- management system
- financial framework and requirements